

SERDANG, Sept 15 – Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) has improved on its rankings by 45 spots, the highest leap among public universities in the QS World University Ranking 2015/2016. UPM recorded the highest jump when it came out at the 331st position, improving on its last year's 376th position, with a score of 39.7.

Researcher creates AFDHAL cooking oil that can be used 80 times

SERDANG – Universiti Putra Malaysia Bioscience Institute Researcher Prof Dr Suhaila Mohamed has invented AFDHAL cooking oil which was formulated using natural herbal extracts, capable of reducing oil absorption in cooking and can be used repeatedly for at least 80 times.

Prof. Dato' Dr. Mohamed Shariff elected into OIE Specialist Commission

Prof. Dato' Dr. Mohamed Shariff Mohamed Din emerges as the first Malaysian to have been elected into the World Organization for Animal Health's (OIE) Aquatic Animal Health Standards Commission.

Prof. Mohd Sapuan - First Malaysian engineer on US SAE Fellow

Prof. Ir Dr. Mohd Sapuan Salit created history when he became the first Malaysian engineer to have been elected as Fellow of the United States' Society of Automotive Engineers International (SAE).

UPM wins two HEWM 2015 community projects

PUTRAJAYA, August 14 - Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) won the first prize under two high-impact community projects categories at the 2015 University Community Transformation Centre (UCTC) Appreciation event held last month in conjunction with the Malaysia Higher Education Week Programme (HEWM 2015) from August 13 to 16.

UPM'S Angeli wins 2015 Berend Houwen Travel Award

SERDANG, July 1 – Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences' Master in Science (Haematology) student, Angeli d/o Ambayya @ Ampiah has done UPM proud when she won the 2015 Berend Houwen Travel Award.

Universiti Putra Malaysia

43400 UPM Serdang
Selangor Darul Ehsan
Malaysia

